Hello Chapter T and Friends,

Hello again all. Seems like it was only a few days ago, I had to write the article for November and now on to December. I guess that's the way things are going now. Well not really, it was an early due date because of the Christmas Party!!

When you read this, we are at the Christmas Party or soon after. Here's to hoping everyone has or had fun!!! I know the donations to Friends in Crisis will be kindly accepted by their folks and we hope what we bring them makes a big difference in someone's life!!

Hope to get in a few rides before I have to leave in January, so I might put out some short notice, one day rides to keep us on track.

Next District event is Mid Winter Roundup on 13 January and I hope we have a big turnout. Well we should; we have a lot of our members on the Texas District Staff, but we should all try to make it. It is a great location (Washington on the Brazos State Park) and am sure we will have lots of fun.

Just a reminder, as of now, I will be departing somewhere around mid January for an overseas job. Please give your assistance to Andrea during that time. She has agreed to keep going as the director and will need loads of help, especially before, during, and after T-Fest!!

Hope to see everyone soon on a ride or event, but whatever you do, please be safe doing it!!

November 2017 (Answers)

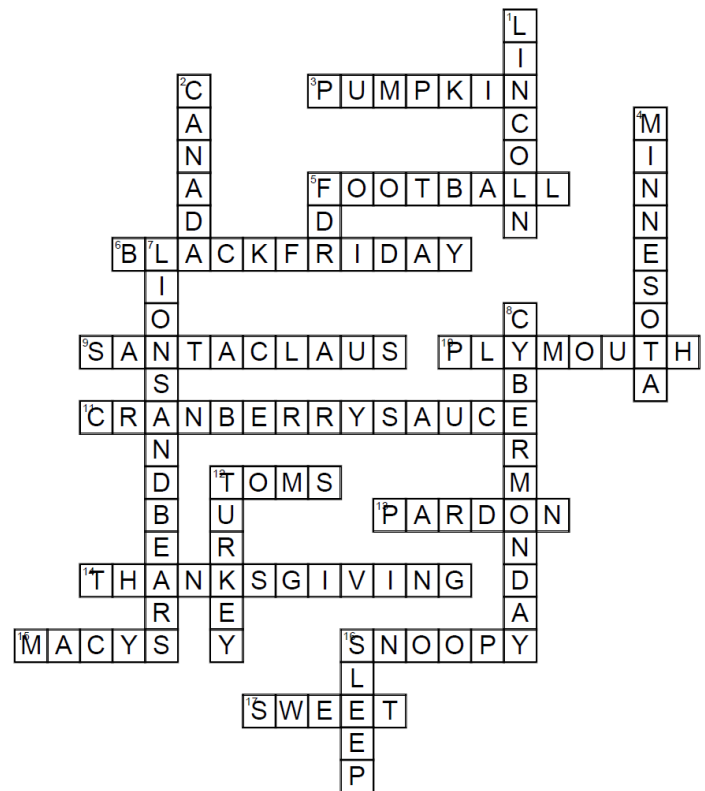

A snail is on the bar one Christmas, and asks the barman

"Excuse me, can I have a pint of beer please?"

The barman says "You want WHAT?"

"May I have a pint of beer, please?" repeats the snail.

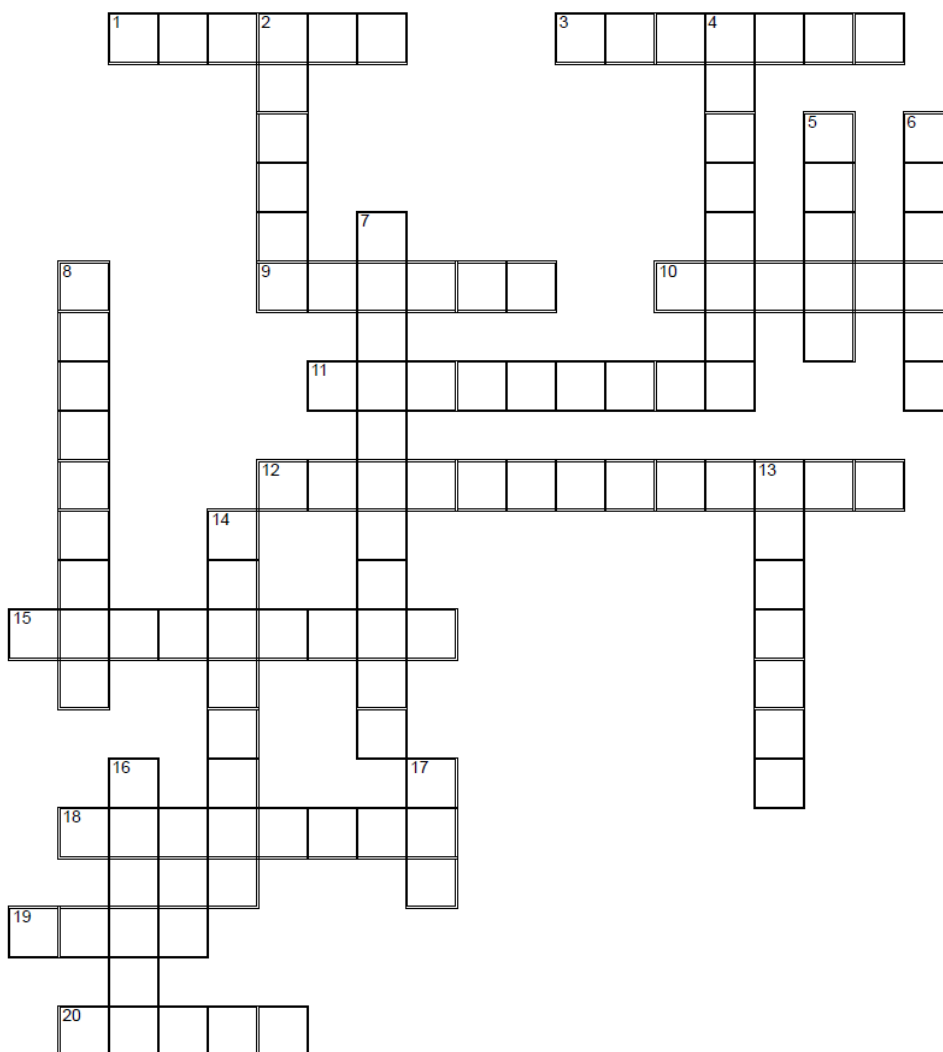

"Don't be so stupid, snails don't drink beer" snarls the bar man and sweeps the snail off the bar on to the floor.

The following Christmas, in the same bar, a snail appears on the counter. The barman asks "What do you want?", whereupon the snail shouts "What did you do THAT for?!!"
