Chapter Directors' Notes

Good evening CenTex Wings,

Quinta and I were pleased to attend the Texas District Yellow Rose Rally in Kerrville 27—29 Apr, along with Jim and Alvalin, Erik and Lori, and Dale and Carleen. It was great to visit and ride with old friends from Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma, and to make new friends. The Rally included lots of guided rides in the beautiful Texas Hill Country, including the famous Three Twisted Sisters. We were also entertained by a performance from "Elvis!"

Jim and Alvalin planned and led a follow-on ride from Kerrville to Alpine on 1 May, with stops at the awesome bridge across the Pecos River Gorge, and at the Judge Roy Bean Museum in Langtry. The next three days were spent riding and sight-seeing in Big Bend National Park, the River Road, Fort Davis, the McDonald Observatory, Terlingua/Study Butte, Lajitas, the Museum of the Big Ben at Sul Ross University and having some fantastic food at the Old Gringo Biker Bar and Grill! Cudo's and Thanks to the Wooduls for all the time and work they put in to making this an unforgettable trip!

I got our EWMA Chapter Charter while at the District Rally. Here is the important part: "The purpose for which this Chapter is organized is ... providing riding opportunities, pleasure, recreation, safety, information exchange, promotion of motorcycling safety, camaraderie, and friendship among its members." Quinta and I look forward to pursuing this purpose.
